'HELIOTROPE'

The FLOUR of the Hour

Master Millers Equipped with the Most Sanitary, Modern Mill, Produce HELIOTROPE FLOUR from clear, plumb, Missouri Soft Wheat.

This Wheat Contains More Real Food Values than other soft or winter wheats, from both of which flour is often made.

Bread, Biscuits and Cake Made of Heliotrope Flour are, therefore, more palatable and valuable as food. Heliotrope Flour is also the most economical flour on the market today.

There's no guesswork about the making of Heliotrope Flour — Chemists in a fine modern laboratory analyze the flour at every stage of milling, insuring a standard uniform product. As the flour comes out experts bake fresh bread with it, right on the spot, in order to prove the flour contains all the qualities claimed for it.

The Creamy Whiteness of Heliotrope Flour Indicates the thoroughness of the purifying processes used in its manufacture. Heliotrope Flour is healthful and sanitary, a most meritorious and delicious food.

Is Sold by All Grocers. Insist on Heliotrope
